1. Measure every plant

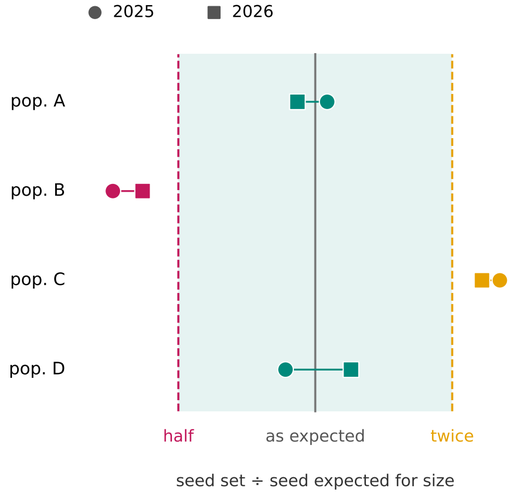

crown size + seeds, every plant, two seasons

2. Seeds expected for size

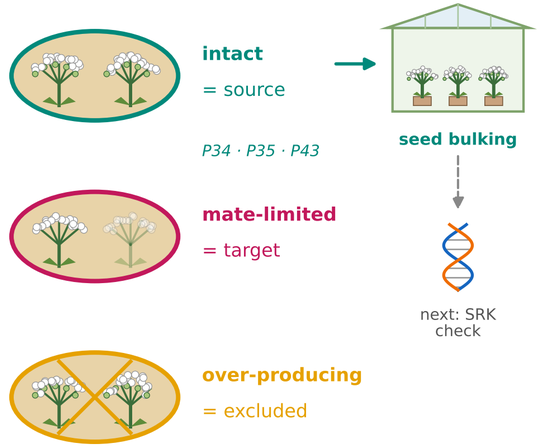

all plants → seed expected for plant size

3. Compare each population

two seasons: below, as expected or above

4. Candidate sources

intact = candidate source → seed bulking